Adrienne Rich

My heart is moved by all I cannot save:
so much has been destroyed

I have to cast my lot with those who age after age, perversely, with no extraordinary power, reconstitute the world.

A passion to make, and make again where such un-making reigns.

Wendell Berry

“Whether we and our politicians know it or not, Nature is party to all our deals and decisions, and she has more votes, a longer memory, and a sterner sense of justice than we do.”

Wendell Berry

. . . And we pray,
not for new earth or heaven
but to be quiet in heart,
and in eye clear.
What we need is here.

Pope Francis

“What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up? . . . What is the purpose of our life in this world?”

--from Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home

“Let us sing as we go.
May our struggles and our concern for this planet never take away the joy of our hope.”

--from Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home

Maya Angelou

“History,
despite its wrenching pain,
cannot be unlived,
but if faced with courage,
need not be lived again.”

--from “On the Pulse of Morning,” recited at President Bill Clinton’s Inauguration (1993)
