

Scientific Societies

GSA

<https://www.geosociety.org/gsa/positions/position10.aspx>

AGU

<https://sciencepolicy.agu.org/files/2018/02/AGU-Climate-Change-Position-Statement-Final-2013.pdf>

Geological Society of London

Joint communique:

<https://www.geolsoc.org.uk/~media/shared/documents/policy/061543%20Climate%20Communique%20WEB.pdf?la=en>

Addendum on evidence from the geologic record:

<https://www.geolsoc.org.uk/~media/shared/documents/policy/Statements/Climate%20Change%20Statement%20Addendum%202013%20Final.pdf>

Energy Companies

ConocoPhillips

<http://www.conocophillips.com/environment/climate-change/>

Equinor

<https://www.equinor.com/en/how-and-why/climate-change.html>

Exxon

<https://corporate.exxonmobil.com/en/current-issues/climate-policy/climate-perspectives/our-position>

Noble Energy:

<https://www.nblenergy.com/sustainability/2017/climate-change>

Shell

Policy Statement:

<https://www.shell.com/sustainability/sustainability-reporting-and-performance-data/performance-data/greenhouse-gas-emissions/climate-change-public-policy-position.html>

Sustainability:

<https://www.shell.com/sustainability/environment/climate-change.html>

A compendium of statements can also be found on Wikipedia, include an interesting view of the AAPG's position in all of this: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Scientific_opinion_on_climate_change